Organized by:
Indian Psychiatric Society
Manipur State Branch and Dept. of Psychiatry, RIMS Imphal

Greetings from Imphal, Manipur

It is a great privilege for Indian Psychiatric Society, Manipur State Branch to host 17th IPS eastern Zonal Mid Term CME 2014 on 19th and 20th July, 2014 at Jubilee Hall, Regional Institute of Medical Sciences (RIMS), Lamphelpat Imphal.

On this occasion we would like to extend our cordial invitation to one and all to visit our state which may not be in the list of your vacation spot. Nonetheless it has abundant natural beauty which will give you a sense of tranquillity and hospitality you will not regret.

The theme of the CME is "Gender, Sexuality and Psychiatry" which is also very important but seldom discussed in depth by many.

8th IPS (EZ) P.G. CME 2014 is also scheduled on 18th & 19th July, 2014 at Hotel Classic, North AOC, Imphal. We invite you to kindly attend both the scientific programme.

We are eagerly waiting for your participation in the CME. Please share your rich experience with us.

We hope to see you at Imphal.

SOME OF THE

MANIPUR TOURIST SPOTS

KANGLA

The centre of Manipur's power till 1891, the historical embodiment of Manipur Rulers and the people of Manipur, Kangla has a significant place in the heart and mind of the people of Manipur.

Red Hill (Lokpaching)

Red Hill is a hillock about 16 kms. from Imphal on Tiddim Road (NH - 150). It is a thrilling spot where the British and the Japanese fought a fierce battle during World War II.

SHREE SHREE GOVINDAJEE TEMPLE

A historic Vaishnavite centre, adjoining Manipur's former Maharajas' Royal Palace, the Govindajee temple is one of the most attractive sights for the tourists. It is in the heart of the Imphal city.

Khongjom War Memorial

It is 36 kms. from Imphal on the Indo-Myanmar road is a major historical place. It was here that Major General Paona Brajabashi, one of the great warriors of Manipur proved his valor against the superior might of the invading British Army in 1891.

Loktak Lake

48 Kms. from Imphal, is the largest fresh water lake in the North East Region. From the Tourist Bungalow set atop Sendra Island, visitors get a bird's eye view of life on the Lake-small islands that are actually floating weeds on which the Lake-dwellers live in the backdrop of the shimmering blue water of the Lake.
